

PROJECT STATUS UPDATE CONSTRUCTION AT SOUTH LAKE WORTH INLET

UPDATED: 11/2/09

Current work:

Sand transfer plant roof framing is complete. Windows are installed. Electrical and hydraulic work continues. Bird Island seawall construction continues with installation of concrete cap.

Parking:

Northwest of the bridge: CLOSED TO VEHICLES UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

Southwest of the bridge and in the main portion of the park: Open during the entire project.

Fishing and pedestrian access:

North jetty east of bridge: Closed until further notice.

North seawall under bridge and west of bridge: Open during entire project.

South jetty east of bridge: CLOSING DATE POSTPONED TEMPORARILY.

South seawall west of bridge: Open during entire project.

Beach access:

South of inlet: Open.

North of inlet: Access beach along footpath north of contractor's chain link fence.

Additional information:

Every effort will be made to provide the most current information; however, dates are approximate. Inlet webcam: <http://www.co.palm-beach.fl.us/webcams/slwi/>

For more information contact: Palm Beach County Environmental Resources Management at 561-233-2400.