Palm Beach County's Art in Public Places program invites you to Bountiful Florida at the Palm Beach International Airport. The show features collage, photography, painting and sculpture by eleven Palm Beach County artists. The works on exhibit highlight the foods and flavors of South Florida's edible landscape and will be on display through May 31, 2006 in the Airport's Concession Level 2. The public is invited to attend an Artist Reception on April 5, 2006, 5:30-7:00 p.m.

Bountiful Florida features works by local artists Anahi DeCanio, Mary Delaney and Andrea Taylor-Spandau of Boca Raton; Gus Sauter and Nancy Witomski of Boynton Beach; Stanford Slutsky and Martin Bronstein of Delray Beach; the late Jerry Summers of Lake Worth; Teri Lyman of Palm Beach Gardens; Frane Mlinar of Wellington and Karen Knight of West Palm Beach. Selected works were chosen by Palm Beach County's Public Art Committee.

Through a grant from Palm Beach County's Cultural Council, HMS Host helps support

Palm Beach County's Art in Public Places exhibition at the Palm Beach International Airport, Destination: Culture. Selected works are exhibited for four months, with changing cultural and travel themes for every exhibition.
