

COLLECTOR'S CORNER

'Sky's the Limit' art takes off

Through photography, painting and mixed media, "Sky's the Limit" features works inspired by the ever-changing weather and skyscape of Palm Beach County. Nineteen Palm Beach County artists were selected by the county's Public Art Committee.

The exhibition is on display through May 7 in Palm Beach International Airport's Concession Level 2.

"Sky's the Limit" is featuring works by local artists Jerry Ginsberg of Boca Raton; Kathleen Fosselman, John Frazee, Teresa Ann Frazee and Suzette Urs of Boynton Beach; Penney Seider and Vicki Siegel of Delray Beach; David Coston of Jupiter;

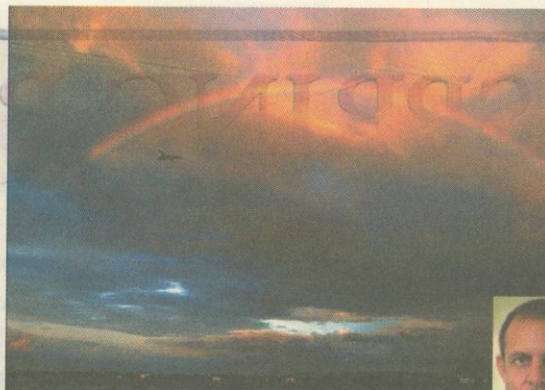

Pamela Marie Banker, Chief Joseph the Eagle, and Jacek Gancarz of Lake Worth; Audrey Krois of Lantana; Peter Debe of Palm Beach; Glen Thomas Pruitt and Barry Seidman of Palm Beach Gardens; and Maria Amatulli, Raymond P. Neubert, John Vincent Palozzi and Janet Villasmil of West Palm Beach.

"Sky's the Limit" will be on display at Palm Beach International Airport, Concession Level 2, in West Palm Beach through May 7. PBIA is just west of Interstate 95 between Southern Boulevard and Belvedere Road. Visit www.pbcgov.com/fdo/art/artworks.htm for a virtual tour of the exhibition.

For more information, call Elayna Toby Singer at (561) 233-0235.

'Calm Before the Storm,' far left, by Kathleen Fosselman, left, is a 17-by-20-inch photograph; $125.

'Rainbow Over Palm Beach,' above, by Jacek Gancarz, right, is a 12-by-18-inch chromogenic print; $500.

'Florida,' left, by Jerry Ginsberg, above, is a 22-by-28-inch photograph; $495.

