I. EXECUTIVE BRIEF

Motion and Title: Staff recommends motion to receive and file: A) Declaration of Local State of General Emergency; and, B) Evacuation Order issued for Tropical Storm Ernesto.

Summary: On August 28, 2006, Palm Beach County declared a Local State of General Emergency due to the impending arrival of Tropical Storm Ernesto. The Declaration of Local State of General Emergency began at 12:00 p.m. on August 28, 2006 and continued for 7 days. Declaring a local state of general emergency also enabled the County Administrator to carry out the provisions of Chapter 252, Florida Statutes, which includes the authority to order evacuations from threatened areas of the County. A voluntary evacuation order was signed and took effect at 2:00 pm, August 29, 2006 and remained in effect for the duration of the general emergency. Countywide (DW)

Background and Justification:

Staff was monitoring the movements and forecast track of Tropical Storm Ernesto as it approached the South Florida Peninsula. The projected path of Tropical Storm Ernesto and forecasted winds and heavy rainfall had the capacity to pose a significant, imminent, and dangerous threat to the health, safety, and welfare of the inhabitants of Palm Beach County, Florida, as well as their real and personal property. Pursuant to Palm Beach County Code Article II, Section 9-35, in the event a special meeting of the Board of County Commissioners cannot be convened, the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners may declare a Local State of General Emergency. Therefore, Tony Masilotti, Chair, signed a Declaration of Local State of General Emergency to begin at 12:00 p.m. on August 28, 2006. An evacuation order was also signed pursuant to this authority.
