Summary: The Fourth Amendment is a continuation of prior recommendations from the Commission on Affordable Housing's Advisory Committee, to remove barriers impeding the implementation of the HHRP. The proposed recommendations will add the following as eligible repairs or improvements: hurricane shutters, mold remediation, and fence replacement. HHRP use of funds will also be expanded under this agreement to cover: moving and/or storage expenses capped at $2,500 per household reimbursement of 2005 hurricane/windstorm insurance policy deductible and/or reimbursement for repairs not covered by the 2005 hurricane/windstorm insurance policy or up to $20,000. Countywide (TKF)

Background and Justification:
The HHRP was adopted by the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners September 27, 2005 (R-2005-1885 and R-2005-1886) for Fiscal Years 2005-2006, 2006-2007 and 2007/2008. This program provides financial assistance to help residents: repair hurricane damages in excess of or not covered by their hurricane/windstorm insurance policy; make repairs to mitigate future hurricane damage; pay one annual hurricane/windstorm insurance premium for the uninsured; pay out of pocket expenses incurred during the hurricanes.
