TO THE PURCHASING CODE

Section	Page	Change and Rationale
2-51(f)(1)j.	1	"Goods or services purchased with donations, gifts, or bequests containing restrictions that would interfere with or prevent the application of the requirements of the Purchasing Code." This added exemption to the Purchasing Code enables the receiving user County department to procure goods or services with donations, gifts or bequests, when the requirements of the Purchasing Code would conflict with restrictions imposed on the donations, gifts or bequests.
2-51(f)(1)l.	1	This sentence is added at the request of the Clerk and Comptroller's Finance Department.
2-51(f)(1)q.	2	"Event specific stage production or programming including individuals or groups providing musical or theatrical performances or lectures." This is added as an exemption to the Purchasing Code to provide an efficient process for entertainment and recreational types of programs.
2-51(f)(1)r.	2	"Solicitation of sponsorships." The added exemption to the Purchasing Code enables user County departments to solicit sponsorships and to procure related goods or services.
2-52	2	The definition of "best and final offer" is being added to clarify an additional process that may be used in the evaluation of proposals.
2-52	2	The definition of "debarment" is being clarified to include "subcontractors". This was necessary in order to clarify the Director of Purchasing's authority to debar subcontractors.
2-52	2	The definition of "suspension" is being clarified to include "subcontractors". This was necessary in order to clarify the Director of Purchasing's authority to suspend subcontractors.
2-54(d)(6)c.	2	This sentence is added to the Purchasing Code for clarification purposes. The Purchasing Department utilizes the "Best and Final Offer" process.
2-54(d)(7)	2	This sentence is added to the Purchasing Code to facilitate the use of Special Masters for protest hearings and for the use of specialized prequalified consultants utilized by various county departments.
2-55(a)	3	The deletion of the word "actual or prospective" would prohibit bidders or proposers that have not submitted a bid or proposal from protesting the recommended award of a contract.
2-56(a) – (d)	3 & 4	The addition of the word "subcontractors" throughout this section clarifies the Director of Purchasing's authority to suspend or debar subcontractors with cause. This clarification was requested by the County's Office of Small Business Administration.
2-56(a)	3	The addition of the words "the renewal of an existing contract" clarifies the Director of Purchasing's authority to prohibit suspended vendors from profiting from new business with the County via the renewal of existing contracts.

2-56(b)	3	This sentence clarifies that a suspended or debarred contractor cannot bid or propose as a subcontractor on a County project; and, that a suspended or debarred subcontractor cannot bid or propose as a contractor on a County project.
2-56(b)(1)	4	The word "fully" is deleted due to clarification questions raised by a Special Master regarding to the meaning of the word in relation to the suspension of a contractor.
2-56(d)(4)	5	This sentence is added to clarify the process whereby the Board of County Commissioners may reject or accept the recommendation of suspension or debarment by the Special Master. A similar provision currently exists in the Purchasing Code for recommendations made by a Special Master resulting from a protest hearing.
