Additional Budget Narrative

The Explorer Program is designed for young men and women between the ages of 14 and 21 years of age, who are interested in the field of law enforcement and community service. Many of the targeted youth come from different social and economic backgrounds, often dealing with single parent homes lacking moral and ethical support. The Explorer program gives the youths a positive environment to learn and discuss things that are going on in their lives and come up with positive ways to overcome the obstacles.

The Explorers have the opportunity to learn, first-hand, about various aspects of criminal justice and law enforcement. They are required to attend a basic and advanced Explorer summer academy. Some of the law enforcement-related courses taught during this academy include: Patrol Procedures, Arrest Techniques, Report Writing, Ethics and Professionalism, Traffic Control, Traffic Stops (unknown and high risk), Search and Seizure, Crime Scene, Courtroom Testimony, Human Relations, Firearm Safety, Gang Resistance, Crime Prevention, Safe Neighborhoods, Drug Prevention and Basic First Aid.

The Explorers also participate in numerous community service events throughout Palm Beach County. They assist with traffic control, parking, bicycle rodeos, fingerprinting small children, Crime Prevention, Parades, and many other community activities.

The Explorers are current members of the Florida Sheriff's Explorers Association. Being apart of this association gives the Explorers an opportunity to come together with other Sheriff's Explorer posts throughout the state of Florida in an effort to further the knowledge and understanding of law enforcement and To further the relationship between the youth and their communities while representing their respective agencies. The Explorers travel throughout the year around the State of Florida to train, compete, attend delegates meetings, and Explorer Training Camps.

The Palm Beach County Explorers are a participating member of Learning for Life (subsidiary of Boy Scouts of America). Neither, the Learning for Life or Boy Scouts of America funds our programs. The Advisors from Explorer Post #111(East) and #611 (West) are submitting this request for your financial assistance in order for them to attend their training events throughout the year.

The Explorers constantly work hard trying to raise money by doing various fundraising events, such as: BBQ's, Concert Parking, Bike Races, Holiday Light Display, etc. Our fundraising activities are limited due to our numerous public relation activities worked throughout the county, representing the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office. The few funds that are raised will be used for their annual rewards trip and training events that are not covered through the LETF funds.

Cost Factors Associated with attending the Explorer Training and Competitions:

Florida Sheriff's Explorer Association State Conference hosted this year by Broward County Sheriff's Explorers. The State Conference is a week long conference that focuses on training and team competitions. This year's competitions include:

Scenario-based

- ◆ Domestic Disturbance
- ◆ Crisis Intervention
- ◆ Crime Scene
- ◆ Active Shooter
- ◆ Unknown Risk Traffic Stop
- ◆ Deputy Down

Range:

- ◆ Co2
- ◆ Revolver
- ◆ Semi-Automatic

Drill & Ceremony

Physical Challengers

Explorer Academy

- ◆ Basic
- ◆ Advanced

Federal Air Marshal Service's Flying Armed Training Course

Bomb Squad

- ◆ Explorers will suite up and experience a scenario, where they play the role of the responder.

The cost for the State Conference is $445.00 per person. We are asking for funding for 32 Explorers and 8 Advisors. The Total Conference fee would be (40 X $445.00) = $17,800.00.

The Explorers will be attending the Florida Sheriff's Explorer Association September 2011 Delegates Conference. The Cost is $358.40 per person. We are requesting funding for 16 Explorers and 4 Advisors (20 X $358.40) = $7,168.00

We are requesting under travel, $400.00 for items and meals that are not included in the conference fees.

For Miscellaneous Expense we are requesting shooters and competition fees of $10.00 per person. This would be for 32 Explorers, (32 X $10.00) = $320.00

Total request LETF $25,688.00
