I. EXECUTIVE BRIEF

Motion and Title: Staff recommends motion to continue the public hearing from June 21, 2011, at 9:30 a.m., to August 16, 2011, at 9:30 a.m., regarding: an Ordinance of the Board of County Commissioners of Palm Beach County, Florida, establishing a procedure for employees who are victims of wage theft to recover back wages; providing for short title; providing for definitions; providing for wage theft complaints; providing for captions; providing for repeal of laws in conflict; providing for severability; providing for inclusion in the code of laws and ordinances; and providing for effective date.

Summary: The proposed Palm Beach County Wage Theft Ordinance was brought before the Board for preliminary reading on February 1, 2011. The Board approved the ordinance on preliminary reading and set it for public hearing on June 21, 2011. At the time, a bill was pending before the Florida legislature that, if enacted, would preempt the County from enacting a wage theft ordinance. In addition, a court hearing was set for April 25, 2011, in the Florida Retail Federation's pending law suit against Miami-Dade County challenging the Miami-Dade County Wage Theft Ordinance. It was hoped that both of these issues would be resolved before the public hearing on June 21, 2011. The legislative bill did not pass. However, the court hearing in the Miami-Dade County case has been reset to July 21, 2011. Countywide (EC)

Background and Policy Issues: On February 1, 2011, the Board approved the proposed Palm Beach County Wage Theft Ordinance on preliminary reading and set it for public hearing on June 21, 2011. However, at that meeting the Board discussed several pending concerns that could affect the Board's ability to enact a wage theft ordinance. A bill had been filed in the Florida legislature that would preempt the County from enacting a wage theft ordinance. Although passed by the Florida House, that bill died in the Senate without a vote and therefore was not enacted during this legislative session. In addition, the Board discussed concerns about the pending litigation in Miami-Dade County regarding the Florida Retail Federation's legal challenge to the Miami-Dade Wage Theft Ordinance. The parties to that case have filed potentially dispositive motions that were to be heard by the court on April 25, 2011. However, that hearing has now been continued to July 21, 2011. Consequently, staff is recommending that the public hearing for the proposed Palm Beach County Wage Theft Ordinance be continued to the Board's meeting on August 16, 2011. People Engaged in Active Community Efforts (PEACE), has also requested that the public hearing for this ordinance be continued to a date after the July 21, 2011, court hearing in the Miami-Dade County case. At the meeting on February 1, 2011, the Board also discussed a proposal by the Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County and the Business Forum of Palm Beach County to implement a program whereby Legal Aid would reach out to populations considered vulnerable to wage theft. Legal Aid would evaluate and process any legitimate wage theft complaints, and help affected individuals recover back wages either through conciliation with the employer, or, if that failed, litigation. Legal Aid has since implemented its Wage Theft Project, a concerted effort by Legal Aid, with the assistance of the Business Forum and PEACE, to reach out to victims of wage theft and inform them of their rights and the help available to them through Legal Aid.

 - (a) Enforcement by private persons.
 - (I) If during the pendency of a wage theft complaint but prior to the issuance of a final decision by a special master, a complainant employee brings a private action in their own right, whether under state law, federal law, or both, in any state or federal court or administrative forum to seek unpaid wages based upon the same facts and allegations as the complainant employee's complaint to the county, or affirmatively or by consent opts to participate in any such litigation or administrative proceeding, that complainant employee's complaint of wage theft shall be deemed withdrawn with respect to any respondent employer named as a defendant in such action. This section shall be interpreted narrowly so as to leave unaffected any cumulative rights that were not the subject of the complaint.

Within thirty (30) days of the issuance of such notice and if the private action is not voluntary dismissed by the complainant, the county will dismiss, with prejudice, the complaint only with respect to the respondent or respondents who are named as a defendant to the private action.
 - (b) Enforcement by the State of Florida. If at any time during the pendency of a complaint of wage theft, the county becomes aware of an enforcement action by the Florida Attorney General or other body of the State of Florida based on wage violations involving the same facts as the complainant employee's complaint to the county, the county will dismiss, either with or without prejudice, the complainant employee's complaint with respect to the respondent or respondents named in such state enforcement action.
