I. EXECUTIVE BRIEF

Motion and Title: Staff recommends motion to:

A) approve Grant Agreement #11-013R in the amount of $9,460 with the Sea Turtle Conservancy (STC) to fund a sea turtle population study in the Lake Worth Lagoon (LWL) expiring April 30, 2012;

B) approve Budget Amendment of $9,460 in the Beach Improvement Fund; and

C) authorize the County Administrator or his designee to sign all future time extensions, task assignments, certifications, and other forms associated with the Grant Agreement, and necessary minor amendments that do not change the scope of work or terms and conditions of the Grant Agreement.

Summary: The Lake Worth Lagoon (LWL) Management Plan recommends evaluating sea turtle populations in the LWL to provide information that will guide LWL's environmental restoration. The STC grant will reimburse the study costs using Florida Marine Turtle License Plate funds. No County match is required. The Grant Agreement is effective upon execution by both parties and expires April 30, 2012. Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 7 (SF)

Background and Justification: The LWL is the subject of extensive restoration projects that are designed to improve water quality, increase the amount of sea grass, oyster, and mangrove habitat. Juvenile sea turtles are considered indicator species of habitat quality and previous studies have found that LWL is an important developmental habitat. This is a continuation of previous studies which began in 2005. This is Phase III and field work will be performed in summer 2011. Data will be used to evaluate change over time and understand the relationship of LWL to other nearby developmental habitats such as Indian River Lagoon and nearshore reefs. Data will be compared to the baseline to evaluate change in the extent of sea turtle health and utilization of a lagoon undergoing extensive restoration and, eventually, reduced stormwater discharge.

PROJECT SUMMARY, TASKS AND DELIVERABLES

Project Summary: The Lake Worth Lagoon Management Plan recommends evaluating sea turtle populations in the lagoon to provide information that will guide lagoon restoration management decisions. This information will also be useful in comparing this population with other inshore Florida populations. Under Phases I and II, Inwater Research Group (IRG) has been conducting marine turtle population assessments in Lake Worth Lagoon on behalf of PBC ERM since 2005 by conducting 3 day sampling events every quarter. The objectives of this work have been and have confirmed that juvenile green sea turtles are present year-round, specific areas have particularly high abundance similar to Indian River Lagoon, provided baseline data on abundance, size class structure, sex ration, and extent of fibropapillomatosis (FP) of marine turtles in the lagoon. This work has confirmed that LWL provides important developmental habitat for green turtles. This project is Phase III and will focus a reduced level of effort on the areas and time of year where turtles are most abundant, and will include continued quantitative sampling by visual transect to examine long-term trends in turtle abundance, as well as capture and tagging efforts that will include an assessment of rates and severity of FP in captured turtles.

Project Tasks and Expected Accomplishments:

The primary objectives of Phase III work are to: 1) Determine the extent that LWL turtles remain in LWL and move to other adjacent developmental habitats (Indian River Lagoon and East Florida nearshore reefs) through recapture efforts and evaluating stranding tag data. 2) Continue to collect biometric and FP data and obtain blood samples for genetic, sex ratio and disease analysis on turtles using north LWL to obtain a more robust data set. 3) Educate stakeholders and decision makers on the importance of LWL as developmental habitat and the need to protect the key habitats identified in the study. The project will produce a more robust data set sufficient to evaluate change over time and understand the relationship of LWL to other nearby developmental habitats such as Indian River Lagoon and nearshore reefs. Data will be compared to the baseline to evaluate change in the extent of sea turtle utilization of a lagoon undergoing extensive restoration and reduced agricultural stormwater discharge. Stakeholders and decision makers will be educated on the importance of LWL as developmental habitat and the need to protect the key habitats identified in the study.
