Dear Edward Lowery:

Subject: Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP-II) Conflict of Interest Exception
Conrad L. Bowen and Danny A. Pratt

We have reviewed the information submitted in connection with the requests for the above listed Palm Beach County employees. The employees are covered persons within the meaning of HUD's conflict of interest regulations at 24 CFR Part 570.611(c).

Palm Beach County employees, Conrad L. Bowen, a Maintenance Worker in the County's Division of Parks and Recreation and Danny A. Pratt, a Messenger in the County's Department of Community Services, may be permitted to participate in the NSP-II, provided they:

(1) meet the eligibility criteria for receipt of benefits, (2) are not granted any preferences as City employees, (3) their applications are not considered ahead of members of the general public and (4) they do not receive more benefits or different benefits than other applicants, not employed by the City, who qualify under the program.

If you have any questions or require any additional information, please contact Darlene Matushefske, CPD Specialist at 305-520-5023.

Sincerely,

Maria R. Ortiz-Hill, Director
Community Planning and Development
