Current Seat No.	Proposed Seat No.	Appointment	Requirement	Nominated By	Term Expires

B) Appointment of one new member to the Criminal Justice Commission as follows:

Appoint	Seat No.	Requirement	Nominated By	Term
Rev. Kevin Jones	22	Member of the local Clergy	Criminal Justice Commission	06/21/2016 -12/31/2018

SUMMARY: The Criminal Justice Commission (CJC) is comprised of 32 members including 21 public sector members who serve by virtue of their positions and 11 private sector members. Ten (10) of the private sector members are nominated for three-year terms by the Economic Council of Palm Beach County, Inc., and appointed by the Board of County Commissioners (BCC). The at-large Clergy Member is nominated for a three-year term by the CJC and appointed by the Board of County Commissioners. The CJC identified six religious organizations to solicit nominations for the Clergy Member seat including: 1) Catholic Dioceses of PBC, PBC Clergy Alliance, Jewish Federation of PBC, Baptist Ministers Conference, Christ Fellowship, and the PBC Baptist Network. The CJC received four nominations and based on selection criteria that included congregational leadership, community involvement, County residency, availability for CJC meetings and service of a three-year term, interest and/or experience with the criminal justice system, and a requirement that they must be ordained, the CJC selected this nominee as the best candidate for this new seat. With the addition of the new Clergy Member, the diversity make up of the CJC consists of 23 males (17 Caucasians, 5 African-Americans, 1 Hispanic-American) and 9 females (5 Caucasians and 4 African-Americans). Countywide (JB)

BACKGROUND AND JUSTIFICATION: On March 1, 2016 the BCC approved revisions to the CJC's Ordinance as codified in the Palm Beach County Code Chapter 2, Article V, Division 5. One revision provided for the addition of one private sector at-large member of the local clergy nominated by the CJC and approved by the Board. Another revision reduced the number of private sector members nominated by the Economic Council from 12 to 10. These two changes reduced the number of CJC seats from 33 to 32. To keep seat numbers consistent with the revisions, it is necessary to change William Kramer's seat to No. 29 and eliminate seat No. 33. Private sector members are appointed for three-year terms, with said term commencing on January 1 or the BCC approval date for the first year of appointment and expiring on December 31 of the third year.

Congregation:	Gray's Temple CME Church
Address:	523 18th Street West Palm Beach, Florida 33407
Explain your Leadership Role with your congregation:

I serve as the head Pastor of Gray's Temple where I handle the day to day business of the church and provide spiritual insight for the members and visitors.
I do this through Sunday Worship experience, bible study, counseling, funerals, weddings, baptism and baby baptism.

Below, please describe the community efforts you have been involved in over the past three years.

Include your roles and duties:

I have been in West Palm Beach for 20 months and upon my arrival I got involved with the Pleasant City neighborhood by trying to create an official neighborhood association, which I serve as the Vice-President. I also was invited to join West Palm Beach's mayor's faith advisory council and riding along with the Palm Beach County Sheriffs office as a chaplain. Due to unfortunate number of shootings arising, a number of clergy, political leaders, police officers and community members came together to do peace walks in the communities where these tragedies have been happening. The goal of these peaceful walks is to reconcile community and police relations, encourage those who know or seen what happen to come forth and to build dialogue on these unfortunate issues.

Last summer I was elected the first president of the Palm Beach County CLergy Alliance, which was birthed out of community leaders, politicians and clergy coming together to discuss ways to prepare and prevent Ferguson, Baltimore and Charleston tragedies. Sadly, Palm Beach County experienced the untimely death of an innocent young man named Corey Jones, which became one of the main focal points of the alliance. I along with Derick McCray and Rae Whitely worked tirelessly to gain the trust of the family and the city of Palm Beach Gardens to prevent rioting, to peacefully protest, and come together to create partnerships to try and prevent this from happening again.

We worked hard with the Chief to look at ways to change policies and created the Corey Policy. This policy department prevents unarmed police officers and unmarked cars to approach civilians. I went with a delegation to Washington, D.C to speak to Congressman Alcee Hastings who presented the Corey Law to Congress to consider passing. We have gained the ears of those in Tallahassee on the issue along with body cameras and the Governor has signed a bill requiring all law enforcement agencies to get body cameras.
