Riviera Beach City Councilman Terence 'T.D.' Davis Biography

Terence 'T.D.' Davis represents District 5, an at-large seat, on the Riviera Beach City Council. He was elected to the board in March 2013, and serves through March 2016. In 2015, Councilman Davis was selected by his colleagues to serve as City Council Chair Pro-tem, the vice chairmanship.

A Riviera Beach native son, Chair Pro-tem Davis graduated from Palm Beach Gardens High School and earned a bachelor's degree from Florida A & M University in Tallahassee. He is currently employed as an assistant track and field coach at Suncoast High School, which is located in Riviera Beach and is one of the Top 10 high schools in the nation.

That work is fitting: Chair Pro-tem Davis has always been focused on the young. Not only is he active in the Youth Ministry at the church where he came of age, St. James Missionary Baptist Church, but since joining the City Council has created several youth-focused initiatives.

He, for example, partnered with Bridges of Riviera Beach, a nonprofit community development corporation, on its 'Strive for 5' program—which pushes City elementary- and middle school-aged students to seek the highest score on the state-mandated FCAT achievement test. The Councilman sponsored and hosted the first-annual 'Taste of Inspiration' breakfast for the students who met the challenge.

He also formed a citywide partnership with the Urban League's Nu-Lites program, a national leadership development and mentoring program that, among other things, provides college scholarships for hard-working teenagers. He has also donated funds to the City's own scholarship fund for college-bound residents. There has also been a 'movie night on the beach,' organizing students for neighborhood cleanups, school book bag giveaways and a partnership with the City's Lincoln Elementary School.

This focus on the young is, apparently, inbred. Chair Pro-tem Davis' great-grandfather, Edward D. Davis, Sr., was recently honored by Gov. Rick Scott for unyielding civil rights crusades that often benefitted young people. Mr. Davis was an educator whose work helped desegregate the University of Florida, raise the salaries of African-American teachers and force Florida's law school to enroll minority students. The Governor inducted the elder Davis into the Florida Civil Rights Hall of Fame in May.

But Chair Pro-tem Davis has also brought fresh ideas and effective solutions to the dais. As he often says, good policy is an outgrowth of hard work and love for the City. Safe streets, economic growth and a healthy environment are keys to his focus.

He is a member of the Florida League of Cities' Growth Management & Economic Affairs Committee, which seeks to ensure and protect Home Rule for the state's municipal governments. He is also president of the Palm Beach County Caucus of Black Elected Officials, through which he has partnered with other non-profits to address social and economic disparity issues across the County.

Terence" T.D." Davis successfully won his 2016 re-election and is currently Council Chair.

COMMISSIONERS OF PALM BEACH COUNTY,
FLORIDA, REPEALING AND REPLACING
RESOLUTION R-2008-1810, AS AMENDED, PROVIDING

WHEREAS the Board of County Commissioners of Palm Beach County, Florida, established the Water Resources Task Force on October 7, 2008; and

WHEREAS in response to efforts to restore the Everglades, in 2007 the South Florida Management District adopted Regional Water Availability Rule which restricts future withdrawals from the Biscayne Aquifer; and

WHEREAS the County is facing significant and costly projected water supply needs, which cannot be met without increased demands on the Biscayne Aquifer unless appropriate measures are taken in accordance with the Regional Water Availability Rule, and which will require development alternative water supply projects such as the use of reclaimed water and/or stormwater reuse projects; and

WHEREAS local leaders are committed to ensuring that the long-term water resource needs of all Palm Beach County water users are effectively planned for and met, including those of water providers, wholesale and retail purchasers, and their customers; and

WHEREAS the Water Resources Task force was created as a county-wide forum to consider these opportunities; and

WHEREAS, there is a need bring the resolution into compliance with the Board of County Commissioners' uniform policies and procedures on advisory boards as provided in Resolution R-2013-0193; and
