I. EXECUTIVE BRIEF

Motion and Title: Staff requests direction: Regarding mandatory facial coverings in public places as discussed and directed at the June 16, 2020 Board of County Commissioner (BCC) meeting.

Summary: As the County moves forward with reopening businesses and recreational activities, every effort has and will be made to safely open the venues. Facial coverings, physical distancing and personal responsibility are paramount in continuing to move forward to the new normal. At the June 16, 2020 BCC meeting, staff was directed to agenda, on the June 23, 2020 Workshop meeting, the issue of mandatory facial coverings. In addition, staff was directed to speak with Sheriff Rick Bradshaw as well as Broward and Miami Dade Counties regarding the enforcement of facial coverings. The Sheriff states that he will enforce the law if passed by the Board. Further, both Broward and Miami Dade are enforcing the facial covering requirements. The common factor among all parties, including Palm Beach County, is education on the benefits of wearing the facial coverings. Countywide (DB)

Background and Policy Issues: Currently, the County strongly encourages the use of facial coverings in public places and requires facial coverings in county owned buildings and Palm Tran vehicles.
