	I. EXE	CUTIV	E BRIEF
CareerSource Palm September 30, 202	Beach County, Inc. (Care	eerSou	irce), for the p	eriod	or Provision of Services with I November 16, 2021 through vices in the economic mobility
Summary: The above agency is qualified to provide entrepreneurship training services to Community Action Program (CAP) clients. The Entrepreneurial Program of Work (EPOW) will be built on a model of counselor/client relationship building, utilizing a one vision workforce of community partners working together to eliminate barriers of success for a small segment of the local population who otherwise would not have the resources to begin a business venture. The program will support the foundation of a successful small business. Funding is provided by the Community Services Block Grant, Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CSBG CARES). This program is designed to improve economic self-sufficiency and create greater flexibility for Palm Beach County residents, who are eligible, seeking alternative employment opportunities, especially in response of the Covid-19 pandemic. Along with financial assistance, this program will provide individuals with mentors, education and career tools, and resources for small business owners. The focus population under this contract are individuals through the re-entry program, veterans, residents with disabilities and those who receive assistance through the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program/Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (SNAP/TANF) program. Qualified clients must be residents of Palm Beach County and meet the 200% federal poverty level guidelines (FPLG) threshold. CareerSource will provide entrepreneurship training services to 13 clients for the total amount of $200,000 for the entire contract period. The program will provide individuals with mentors, education and career tools, and resources clients will find helpful as small business owners. This is a new contract and no previous statistics are available. No County funds are required. (Community Action Program) Countywide (HH)
Background and Justification: CSBG CARES funding helps individuals and families to become more self-sufficient. Funding is used locally to provide economic stability services to low-income households such as rental and utilities assistance, and economic mobility services such as employment skills training, job placement services, and financial literacy training to qualified Palm Beach County clients.
