Shakari Bell	16	PBC Resident 15-18 years of age		01/24/23-9/30/23

Summary: Per Resolution R2018-0188, the Board of County Commissioners (BCC) established the Commission on Women Advisory Board (ACW). The ACW is comprised of fifteen (15) members, two (2) appointed by each County Commissioner and one (1) at-large appointed by majority vote of the BCC. The Board may also appoint a youth representative (15-18 years of age) to serve as an ex-officio member. The ACW serves as an advisory body to focus on matters pertaining specifically to women. Fourteen (14) seats and one (1) at-large seat are currently filled. The current diversity count is Caucasian: 7 (47%), African-American: 4 (27%), Hispanic: 3 (20%) and Unknown: 1 (6%). The gender ratio (female: male) is 15:0. These nominees are a Caucasian, unknown and African American females. The ACW reviewed the applications and recommends the appointment of Sophia Nemes. Countywide (JW)

Background and Justification: The BCC adopted Resolution R2018-0188 establishing the ACW as an advisory body to focus on matters pertaining specifically to women. The Resolution requires that the appointees should be a Palm Beach County resident and reflect, to the greatest extent possible, the demographic and geographic diversity in the County. Pursuant to the PPM regarding board appointments, staff requested the Mayor and members of the BCC submit nominees to fill this At-Large vacancy. The ACW meets quarterly.

The most recent youth representative appointee, Dafany Miranda-Zepeda, did not seek reappointment when her term expired on September 30, 2022. We have received applications from Giada Robinson, Sophia Nemes and Shakari Bell for consideration for this Board. Attached are their completed applications and background information. The Advisory Commission on Women recommends the appointment of Sophia Nemes. It is our intention to have this matter submitted for consideration at the January 24, 2023 meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, if you want to appoint another youth member for this vacancy. The roster of the current members of the Advisory Commission on Women is attached for your information.

Per Resolution R2018-0188, the Board of County Commissioners established the Advisory Commission on Women (ACW). The ACW is comprised of fifteen (15) members, two (2) appointed by each County Commissioner and one (1) at-large appointed by majority vote of the BCC. The Board may also appoint a youth representative (15-18 years of age) to serve as an ex-officio member. If the Board appoints a youth member, the term is for one year.

Members must be residents of Palm Beach County and should reflect, to the greatest extent possible, the demographic and geographic diversity in the County, represent the specific ACW's focus, as well as experts in the field. All members shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. The ACW serves as an advisory body to focus on matters pertaining specifically to women. The board meets at least quarterly. Fourteen (14) seats are currently filled and one (1) at-large. The current diversity count is Caucasian: 7 (47%), African-American: 4 (27%), Hispanic: 3 (20%) and Unknown: 1 (6%). The gender ratio (female: male) is 15:0.

If there are any questions concerning this request, or if additional information is needed, please contact me at 355-2558 or pguerrie@pbcgov.org

SHAKARI A. BELL is a Junior at Oxbridge Academy of the Palm Beaches. Her ultimate goal is to impact the next generation by advocating a change for women. She believes every student deserves a space of safety to cultivate impactful events and ideas that will help their community. Through this philosophy, Shakari participates in the Women of Color Union organization at her school and has been provided opportunities to socially bring cultural diversity to the school. She desires to impact her community by empowering women of all ages to strive to be their best version. Additionally, Shakari seeks to perform at her full potential academically, maintaining a 3.4-grade point average while committing to her love for volleyball through the Wellington Volleyball Academy (WVBA) while participating in her other extracurricular activities, Priceless Pearls Youth Ambassadors, Delta Gems of the West Palm Beach Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, TRIBE at Rosemary Salvation Army, and demonstrating her leadership capabilities as the Vice President of the Young People's Division at her church, Payne Chapel African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church in West Palm Beach, Florida.

Shakari's future goal is to attend college and major in Sports Medicine. Upon completing graduate studies, she wants to pour back into her community by creating a mentoring program for troubled girls (15-18). Through this program, Shakari will lead the cause of providing the girls' opportunities to attend college through fellowship opportunities regardless of race, ethnicity, and cultural background. She relates being empowered by learning to love herself more courageously, after years of being bullied in elementary and middle school. Through life, Shakari wants to continue to value self-worth, utilize her inner-power, promote advocacy for change, and establish divine unity through all things she strives to accomplish.
